

Polythene Recovery Service

Our free, used polythene recovery service is one way that we help our customers to be more resource-efficient.

It keeps valuable resources within the circular economy by returning clean polythene packaging to the production cycle. Used polythene is collected from our customers on a back-load basis, for recycling within the UK, at no additional cost to them.

